

SHOWRUNNER AWARD

Call for Nominations

The twelfth annual WGC Showrunner Award will be presented on April 30, 2018, at the WGC Screenwriting Awards. Our jury is looking for a showrunner who has a big vision and a body of work that expresses it. Help us celebrate our country's best showrunners by submitting a nomination.

The showrunner is a writer/producer who holds the creative vision for a television series. He or she controls all creative decisions and oversees the series from development, through prep and production, to the completion of post. In other words, the showrunner is the creative force driving the series, and it is time for our best to be brought from behind the scenes and celebrated by their peers.

The ideal candidate for this award will have a significant body of work, even if he or she doesn't have a show in production at the moment.

Some of the things the jury will be looking for are:

- An impressive body of work
- Great writing skills
- Leadership abilities
- A clear vision
- Generosity and loyalty to fellow writers

To be eligible for the WGC Showrunner Award, the nominee must have been the recognized showrunner of a TV series and a member in good standing of the Writers Guild of Canada. The nominee may be an individual or a team.

To nominate a showrunner, you must be a WGC member and the initial nominator must have worked with the nominee under a WGC contract. Please fill out the following nomination form and attach a letter of nomination explaining why your showrunner deserves the twelfth annual WGC Showrunner Award. Additional letters of support may be submitted by any WGC members familiar with the nominee.

A jury of peers will select the recipient of the award. It will be presented at the WGC Screenwriting Awards on April 30, 2018 in Toronto.

The deadline for nominations is Thursday, March 1, 2018. Please submit entries via mail, email (awards@wgc.ca) or fax to 416-979-9273.
